

- Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Lyndon B. Johnson, 1963-1964, Book I* (Washington: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1965), p. 8.
48. "Another Step Forward" (by Robert Hotz), Aviation Week & Space Technology, December 16, 1963, p. 25.
 49. "Nuclear Flight Program Cancelled As President Trims FY '65 Budget," Aviation Week & Space Technology, December 30, 1963, p. 22.
 50. "South Vietnamese Raiders Extending War" (by Larry Booda) and "Options in Vietnam," Aviation Week & Space Technology, April 6, 1964 (pp. 16-19).
 51. "Washington Roundup," Aviation Week & Space Technology, April 27, 1964, p. 25.
 52. "Preliminary Response by James Webb to President's Letter of January 30, 1964," sent to Glenn Seaborg on May 18, 1964. (From DOE archives.)
 53. "The SNAP Report: Suggested Outline," memorandum for the Commissioners, January 14, 1963. (From DOE archives.)
 54. "Tentative Schedule—SNAP Program Study Seminars," memorandum for the Commissioners, January 31, 1963. (From DOE archives.)
 55. "Memorandum For Commissioner Tape: SNAP Report," from James T. Ramey, January 24, 1964. (From DOE archives. Emphasis in original.)
 56. See "Conclusions" in Systems for Nuclear Auxiliary Power: A Report by the Commission—1964, TID-20103 (Washington: U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, February 1964). (Copy from DOE archives. Emphasis in original.)
 57. Letter to Seaborg from Welsh (NASC), February 7, 1964. (From DOE archives.)
 58. "Agreement Between The Atomic Energy Commission and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration on Space Nuclear Systems" (proposed agreement, attached to memorandum for Chairman and the Commissioners pre-