

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. ARMY CHEMICAL CENTER
AND CHEMICAL CORPS MATERIEL COMMAND
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
ARMY CHEMICAL CENTER, MARYLAND

ARM2.941209.139

IN REPLY REFER TO

CMLAM-M-RA

27 September 1960

SUBJECT: Message LX13936, 21 September 1960, from Lexington Signal
Depot

THRU: ~~Chief Chemical Officer~~
~~ATTN: CMLWA-S~~
~~Department of the Army~~
~~Washington 25, D. C.~~

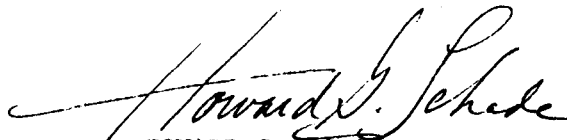

HOB 29 Sept 60

TO: The Surgeon General
ATTN: MEDCE-OH
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

1. Reference is made to Message LX13936, 21 September 1960, from Commanding Officer, Lexington Signal Depot, Lexington, Ky.
(copies attached as Inclosure No. 1).

2. Investigation by this Headquarters revealed that no personnel were overexposed. Film badge number KFL163 was not worn by any individual but was exposed in a X-ray machine in an experiment. (Copies of certification are attached as Inclosure No. 2).

FOR THE COMMANDER:

HOWARD G. SCHADE
Major, CmlC
Executive Officer

2 Incl

1. Message LX13936 (2cys)
2. Certification (3cys)

Washington National Record Center
Office of the Army Surgeon General
Record Group 112

Accession #: 67A-4511

Box #: 43

File: Over exposure Second U.S. Army

26 September 1960

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I certify that film badge number KFL 163 for week of 8-14 September, was not worn by any individual but was exposed in a X-ray machine in an experiment.

Larry A. Hull

LARRY A. HULL, Pfc
Health Physics Office
Dir/Tech Svcs

CONCURRENCE:

Naomi E. Roberts
NAOMI E. ROBERTS, Secretary
Health Physics Office

Incl # 2¹

Washington National Record Center
Office of the Army Surgeon General
Record Group 112

Accession #: 67A-4511

Box #: 43

File: Over exposure Second U.S. Army