

REPLY TO: SGHMH

16 Apr 80

SUBJ: Closing Report - Clinical Investigational Proposal (No SGO Number)
Southwest Oncology Group (SWOG) 7624, Adriamycin vs. Adriamycin +
Cis-Platinum in Transitional Cell Bladder Carcinoma.

TO: SGS

1. Status of Study to Date: This study was closed with the activation of SWOG 7904 (for impaired renal function) and SWOG 7922 (for good renal function patients) to further patient accrual, August 16, 1979.
2. Percent Completed: The study is closed. (See para 5 below).
3. Specific Problems: None.
4. Deviations from Approved Protocol: None.
5. Summary of Results to Date: One patient was registered on the study from Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center. Statistical data is not available at this time. When the Southwest Oncology Group publishes a manuscript analysis will be provided.
6. Number of Publications and Presentations: None at the present time.

Thomas R. Maloney
THOMAS R. MALONEY, COL, USAF, MC
Chairman, Dept. of Hematology-Oncology
Division of Medicine

1 patient registered to SWOG
1 patient not registered but treated