

December 9, 1957

Dear Dr. Cantril:

This is to acknowledge with thanks your letter of 3 December. First may I congratulate you on your election to the Chairmanship of the Advisory Committee on Biology and Medicine and tell you how fortunate my colleagues and I consider it that the country will have the benefit of your services in that capacity.

The several points you have made in your letter will be dealt with in a communication which is to follow this.

I look forward to your next meeting in Washington and to having the pleasure of sitting with you at that time.

Sincerely,

/s/
Lewis L. Strauss
