THIS IS A CLASSIFIED DOCUMENT

1. This document contains restricted data within the meaning of the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 and/or information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50 U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited and may result in severe criminal penalty.
2. Before this document can be read by a person other than the one to whom it is assigned, permission must be obtained from an appropriate Section Chief or higher officer who must be convinced that the person needs to read the document for the success of his work.
3. This is a classified document and is to be kept only in a guarded area. SECRET material must be kept in a locked safe or in a locked filing case with tumbler lock. CONFIDENTIAL material must be kept in at least a locked filing cabinet.

A SECRET OR CONFIDENTIAL document is not to be copied or otherwise duplicated without permission of the originating office. Extensive notes on the content of a secret report must be taken only in a bound notebook with numbered pages having the designation SECRET. This must be safeguarded in the same way as a secret report. Other notes must be avoided but if made must be done in a form meaningless to anyone but the writer and later destroyed. The person or office to whom a SECRET or CONFIDENTIAL document is issued is accountable for the document at all times. Permission for transmission to another office other than that of the assignee must be obtained through the Central Files and recorded there. As soon as the document is no longer needed it is to be returned to Central Files whereupon the individual will be relieved of the responsibility for its safe-keeping. The form below is to be used in routing this report and must be signed by each person who reads it.
