Dear Dr. Robertson:

In association with its responsibilities regarding the review and acceptance of assurances on the use of human subjects, this office periodically issues a cumulative list of institutions which have filed acceptable general assurances. 1963-1972

Since many institutions are involved in cooperative activities, the enclosed copy of the "Forty-third Cumulative List. . ." will facilitate determining if cooperating institutions have filed acceptable general assurances and have committees with which you can work.

We are also using this letter to advise you of the current status of your own institution. Our records indicate that:

- Your revised assurance of compliance with Department of Health, Education, and Welfare policy has been accepted and you have been so notified.
- Your revised assurance of compliance with DHEW policy has been received and is under review.
- Your committee structure only has been submitted.
- You have not submitted a substantive response to previous memoranda requesting compliance with DHEW policy.

*see memo dated
Apr 15 1971
May 15 1971
Nov 22 1971*

The code designations (2)-(9) immediately preceding the institution's name indicate your assurance status as of February 11, 1972. If you note any discrepancy between your understanding of your status and the code listing, please let us know.

submitted to Finer

The DHEW policy permits us to interpret assurances of compliance with the older Public Health Service policy as temporarily meeting the Departmental requirements. However, institutions not in compliance with DHEW policy as of July 1, 1972, will be deleted from the cumulative list.

Sincerely yours,

D. T. Chalkley
