

R

June 20, 1973

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

Dr. James L. Liverman
 Director, Division of Bio-Medical and Environmental Research
 U. S. Atomic Energy Commission
 Washington, D. C. 20545

STUDIES INVOLVING THE USE OF HUMAN SUBJECTS

Enclosed is the Institutional Assurance on Research Involving Human Studies from the Human Studies Committee of the Health Services Laboratory. Also enclosed is an updated list of the members of the committee. Included in the list are the three AEC employees previously identified as well as four consultants not employed at the NRTS.

Original Signed
 John H. Spickard, M.D.

John H. Spickard, M. D.
 Medical Director
 Health Services Laboratory

Enclosures:
 As stated

cc: Donald I. Walker ~~...~~

Don: I think it would be appropriate to forward the copy of the minutes of the Human Studies Committee meeting if you have not as yet done so.

REPOSITORY INEL
 COLLECTION RESL READING FILES/MONTHLY
ACTIVITY REPORTS
 BOX No. CABINET*4, DRAWER*5, RESL, CFA-690
ROOM #102, MMS-16-3
 FOLDER STUDIES INVOLVING THE USE OF
HUMAN SUBJECTS

1189633

HUMAN STUDIES COMMITTEE MEMBERS

AEC Members

Claude W. Sill, Chief of the Analytical Chemistry Branch

Adrian H. Dahl, Chief of the Environmental Branch

John H. Spickard, M. D., Director of the Medical Department

Off-Site Members

Rev. Barry B. Heath, Associate Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Idaho Falls. Graduate of Indiana University - B.S. in Biology, 1968. Graduate of San Francisco Theology Seminary 1971.

Thomas Mitchell, M. D. St. Louis University, M. D., 1959. Residency University of Colorado 1960-1964. Board certified in Anatomical and Clinical Pathology 1964. Experience: Private practice of Pathology 1964-1967. 1967-present Director, LDS Hospital Laboratory, Idaho Falls.

Robert F. Hahn, M. D. St. Louis University, M. D., 1953. Residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. Residence in Radiology, University of Utah, 1966-1969. Past experience: Chief of Gastroenterology, Houston VA Hospital. Private practice Idaho Falls 1963-1966 in Internal Medicine. Radiologist at Sacred Heart Hospital, Idaho Falls, 1969-present. Certification: Board certified in Internal Medicine. Board qualified in Gastroenterology. Board eligible in Radiology.

Glenn H. Haluska, M. D. Temple University, M. D., 1965. Residency University of Rochester 1966-1969. Board certified in Therapeutic Radiology. Masters Degree in Radiation Biology from University of Rochester. Has also had two post-graduate years of Biochemistry. Current position is Director of Intermountain Cancer Institute, Pocatello, Idaho.