

16

O.F.

108-A

407258

FRANK MARTIN
RECORDED

June 12, 1957

Dear Congressman Porter:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces.

X OF 117
X OF 3-10

The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable Charles O. ^X Porter
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

XOF108

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

BNH/rh

June 12, 1957

JACK MARTIN
CARDER

Dear Congressman Anderson:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable LeRoy^x Anderson
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

bnh/rh

RECEIVED
JUN 18 1957
GENERAL FILES
L. JACK MARTIN
CARDED

June 12, 1957

Dear Mrs. Knutson:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

^x
The Honorable Coya Knutson
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

BNH:mh

June 12, 1957

JACK MARTIN
CARDED

Dear Congressman Ullman:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

X
The Honorable Al Ullman
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

BNH/rh

June 12, 1957

WILSON
CARDEN

Dear Congressman Hays:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

X
The Honorable Wayne L. Hays
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

June 12, 1957

JACK MARTIN
CARDED

Dear Mr. Burns:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable Jehn A. Burns^X
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

June 12, 1957

L. JACK MARTIN
GARDNER

Dear Congressman Wier:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable Roy W. Wier^x
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

BNH:mh

June 12, 1957

JACK MARIN
GARDEP

Dear Mrs. Pfost:

The President has asked me to thank you sincerely for your June seventh letter, co-signed by seven of your colleagues, urging him to "place (his) full official and personal weight" behind five specific measures which relate to atomic warfare and health hazards and to the character of our armed forces. The President asked me to assure you that he will continue his efforts to deal effectively with each of the problems mentioned. He, of course, welcomes the close attention you and your colleagues have devoted to these crucial problems facing our country.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
The Deputy Assistant to the President

^X
The Honorable Gracie Pfost
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

BNH:mh