

Session 13 – Exercise Playbook

Roadmap to Completion

April 17, 2014

Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany

Mark Wittrock

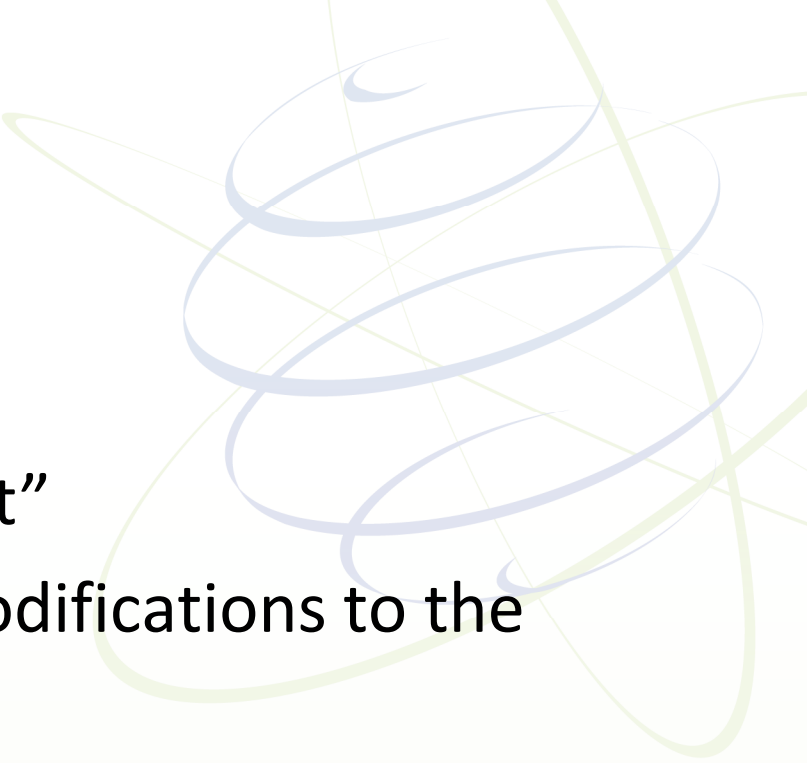

Deputy Assistant Director, International Cooperation

Domestic Nuclear Detection Office
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

GICNT

Global Initiative to Combat Nuclear Terrorism

Roadmap to Completion

- Discussion Topics:
 - “Final” vs. “Living Document”
 - Needs for any additional modifications to the playbook
 - Determine direction for 2014 IAG meeting in Seoul

“Final Product” or “Living Document”

- Final Product (Current set of scenarios and supplementary materials)
 - How/when should those be made available?
 - What is the timeline for incorporating changes?
 - What is the next logical steps for implementation/utilization of these scenarios?
- Living Document
 - How should new scenarios and materials be developed, reviewed, approved?
 - Where would this information be maintained?

Additional Modifications

- Additional scenarios to develop
 - Are there other scenarios that States would like to incorporate from their own experiences?
- Besides scenarios, what other materials are necessary?
 - A basic “how-to-use” guidance?
 - Suggested best practice for adapting to a field/operations exercise?
 - Other?

Next Steps

- Adoption/review of scenarios by States
- Plan for 2014 IAG meeting in Seoul
 - What would you like to see in that meeting as it relates to the Exercise Playbook?
- Plan for GICNT NDWG exercise using a scenario from the Exercise Playbook