2013 Richard Tapia Celebration of Diversity in Computing Conference Washington, D.C. February 7-10, 2013

Register Now to Attend Tapia 2013

Registration is now open for the 2013 Richard Tapia Celebration of Diversity in Computing Conference, the seventh in a series. The Program includes stellar invited speakers, compelling panels discussions, a student poster competition, a daylong Doctoral Consortium, a session featuring a choice of attractions unique to Washington, D.C., a gala banquet and dance, and many exciting networking opportunities.

Creating a welcoming environment, gathering a community of diverse scholars, and providing the highest quality learning, networking, and social experiences make the "Tapia Conference" the tremendous event that it is. We are gathering a constellation of amazing speakers including:

- Annie Anton, Chair, School of Interactive Computing, Georgia Institute of Technology
- Vint Cerf, Google's VP and ACM President
- Jeanine Cook, Associate Professor, New Mexico State University
- Armando Fox, Professor in Residence, University of California, Berkeley
- Anita Jones, University Professor Emerita, University of Virginia
- Theresa Maldonado, Division Director, The National Science Foundation
- Hakim Weatherspoon, Assistant Professor, Cornell University

The Doctoral Consortium information is available HERE. Check back on this website for more information as planning continues.

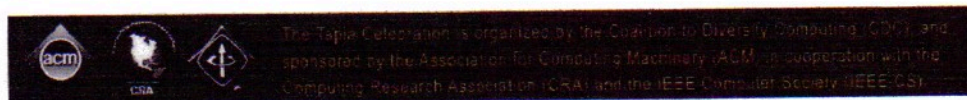

We hope to see you in D.C. in February 2013!
