Get Involved with INMM

INMM offers a wide variety of opportunities for all its members to volunteer, and is always looking for members who are willing to donate time, expertise and make a difference. Click here for complete list of committees.

Why Volunteer?

- Volunteers play an integral role in the day-to-day operations of the Institute and contribute to the decision-making process that helps shape INMM as an organization.
- Volunteers make connections with other volunteers and leaders in the profession, creating a powerful professional network.
- Volunteerism adds leadership skills and professional dedication to your resume.

Volunteer Today

To volunteer to serve on a committee, task force or other volunteer body, email inmm@inmm.org or call +1-847-686-2236.

RESPONSIBILITIES & OBJECTIVES

“Responsible for all communications between INMM and its members, as well as external publicity and outreach” to the broader community.

Common theme: to actively engage current members while adapting our communications products and strategies to the evolving needs of new and perspective members from increasingly diverse geographic, educational, digital, and other backgrounds.

STRATEGIC PLANNING & COMMUNICATIONS

INMM STRATEGIC PLAN 2017 – 2019

VISION

The Institute of Nuclear Materials Management will be the leading international professional society for the stewardship of nuclear materials and related technologies to enhance global security.

MISSION

The Institute of Nuclear Materials Management is dedicated to the safe, secure and effective stewardship of nuclear materials and related technologies through the advancement of scientific knowledge, technical skills, policy dialogue, professional capabilities, and best practices.

GOALS

Leadership

Be recognized internationally as the leading professional society for the effective stewardship of nuclear materials and related technology

Objectives

- Improve communications with stakeholders to increase awareness of INMM's contributions and activities
- Make the INMM website a more effective tool
- Develop and strengthen strategic relationships with complementary organizations

Representation

Represent the breadth of the profession

Objectives

- Broaden membership and increase participation in INMM from under-represented stakeholder communities and professional disciplines
- Reflect broad perspectives and interests when designing events and communications
- Broaden membership and increase participation with regard to age, gender, national background

Community Relationships

A strong relationship exists between the policy and technical communities

Objectives

- Identify emerging global security priorities to inform INMM activities
- Ensure a balanced ratio of policy to technical papers at annual meetings and workshops
- Increase collaboration with policy-oriented organizations

Institute of Nuclear Materials Management (INMM) Communications Committee

Mid-Term Plan: 2019-2021
06 December 2018

Section 1. Introduction

To better align the Committee with our significant role in the INMM Strategic Plan, as well as foresee activities that will be related to the 60th Anniversary, website redesign, and other INMM activities, this mid-term plan attempts to document and plan the activities of the Communications Committee over a three-year period, and will be revised annual to reflect progress and new/changing goals and communications needs. This document is not intended to be an exhaustive list of Committee activities, and cannot feasibly include all ad hoc requests. It is just a guide, a plan, so we know what's coming and can start planning.

Section 2. Communications, General
