

MESA Represents the Largest Federal Investment in Microsystem Technologies

SAND2007-5333P

MicroLab 100% complete
MicroFab 100% complete
Fab Tooling 100% complete

Weapons Integration Facility construction complete, occupancy in progress

MDL System Upgrades completed June 2003

Overall MESA Project 97% complete
Projected completion September 2008
(3 years ahead of baseline schedule)

Projecting ~ $40M under baseline cost

MDL Retooling completed July 2004

Sandia is a multiprogram laboratory operated by Sandia Corporation, a Lockheed Martin Company, for the United States Department of Energy's National Nuclear Security Administration under Contract DE-AC04-94AL85000.

Sandia
National Laboratories