

Martha Charles-Vickers

Graduate of Texas A&M (MS Nuclear Engineering), Air Force Institute of Technology (AFIT) (MS Systems Engineering) and University of New Mexico Anderson School of Business (Executive MBA). Over 30 years of National Security experience in Arms Control and Non-Proliferation, weapons lifecycle engineering functions, nuclear surety, enterprise level cyber-engineering, cybersecurity and Space System integration and test. Principle Member of Technical staff, at Sandia National Laboratories and Research and Development in Cybersecurity and integrated security for the Neutron Generator Enterprise in support of innovation of cyber-engineering and securing the supply chain for national security design and manufacturing initiatives.