The email body contains the following text:

Looks good, did you submit an R&A for it, I don't see it? If you need a document I would just make a word document that says you sent it via thumbdrive.

Kristin

Hi Kristin,

I had to leave the site to go meet a delivery person at my home.

I put the presentation on a thumb drive, put it in an envelope and slid it under your door.

If you can do the R&A today, it would be a big help. I can then send it to Norway over the weekend. Sorry for the short fuse.

Thanks for your help! Call me if you have any questions!

Yours,

Lennie
