Office of Scientific and Technical Information

2000 PrePRINT Network and GrayLIT Network launched; OSTI convened Physical Sciences Workshop, chaired by Dr. Alvin W. Trivelpiece

2001 Energy Citations Database launched; interagency workshop convened on Federal science portal concept

2002 Data harvesting initiated; Science.gov, FirstGov's designated science portal, launched

2003 PrePrint Network expanded and renamed E-print Network; road adjacent to OSTI renamed Science.gov Way

2004 OSTI partnered with Yahoo! and Google to make all DOE-sponsored R&D searchable by title; launched Science.gov 2.0, achieved more optimized results via one integrated interface

2005 OSTI launched Science Conferences; launched Science.gov 3.0, which provided increased precision in government science search through "Metarank;" Science Research Connection unveiled for DOE and contractors